

Vermont EMT-Basic With a Current NREMT-B Certification

All current NREMT-Basics have one registration cycle (two years) to complete a state approved Emergency Medical Technician-Basic (EMT-B) to Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) transition course in order to be eligible for National EMS Certification as an Emergency Medical Technician (NREMT).

- Complete a state-approved transition course validated by a certificate that has within its title:
 - NREMT-Basic's name
 - Transition course completion date and hours
 - The statement: "has completed a state approved EMT-Basic to Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) transition course."
 - Name of the sponsoring agency or district
 - Signature of the individual responsible for the training
- To transition to the EMT level, the NREMT-Basic is not required to complete a National EMS Certification Examination.
- NREMT-Basics who submit an acceptable recertification application but do not include successful completion of a state-approved transition course from EMT-Basic to EMT will be issued National EMS Certification as an Emergency Medical Responder (NREMR) upon reaching their expiration date of March 31, 2015 or 2016.

NREMT-Basic expires:	Complete EMT Transition by:
March 31, 2014	March 31, 2016
March 31, 2015	March 31, 2015

You must maintain your NR-EMT certification for the duration of your Vermont EMT license.
